

boston below deck reel

out of sight, out of mind

why choose a boston below deck reel

If you don't want the reel in the way or just plain don't want to look at a reel poolside then why not hide it away? If your pool deck is raised above ground then the Boston is a simple solution to storing your reel and cover in this space under the deck. The Bostons clever design integrates the lid and reel mounting system making it simple to install, simple to operate. And don't forget the BMH reel mechanism is now proven with over 20 years use and 1000's of installations. If your site suits then this is a great option to consider.
