

Elegance pool reels

making pool cover use easy

what makes the elegance reel special

This reel is the result of a collaboration that combined decades of industry experience with a specialist design studio.

The resulting reel has both function and form to give the owner a reel that is both aesthetically pleasing and easy to operate.

This design starts with the requirements of strength and durability then goes on to include unique features like the integrated pin braking system.

If you want your poolside area to look good – then the Elegance is the right reel option for you.
